

License information for the software pre-installed on Toshiba Portable External Hard Drives (NTI BACKUP NOW EZ)

The NTI BACKUP NOW EZ software pre-installed on Toshiba Portable External Hard Drives consists of multiple, independent software components. Each software component is copyrighted by NTI or a third party. This End User License Agreement (“EULA”) is a legal agreement between you and NTI Corporation (“NTI”) with regard to the copyrighted Software provided with this EULA. Use of any software and related documentation (“Software”) provided with a NTI Backup Now EZ, or made available by downloading or otherwise to you by NTI in whatever form or media, will constitute your acceptance of this EULA terms, unless separate terms are provided by the software supplier or NTI in the documentation accompanying the NTI Backup Now EZ or otherwise, in which case certain additional or different terms may apply. If you do not agree with the terms of this EULA, do not use, download, install or copy the Software. If you wish to return a complete Toshiba Portable External Hard Drive (hardware and software), contact the retailer where you purchased the Toshiba Portable External Hard Drive, and comply with the retailer’s standard return policies and procedures.

NTI BACKUP NOW EZ uses software components that are made available by a third party under a third-party end-user license agreement or copyright notice (hereinafter referred to as a “Third Party Software”). Some Third Party Software requires that the source code of the applicable component be disclosed as the condition for distributing the software component in executable format. You can check the software components subject to such requirements, along with other terms and conditions which apply to the Third Party Software by sending a request to the following email address: info@nticorp.com. The use and distribution of such Third Party Software is subject to the terms and conditions applicable to such Third Party Software. These terms and conditions are exhibited in their original text (English) as exactly written by the respective parties other than NTI. Third Party Software components provided, include but are not limited to the following:

- 1) Grub4dos (version 1.0.4.4), licensed under the GNU General Public License version 2. A copy of such license is available at <http://www.gnu.org/licenses/gpl-2.0.html>
- 2) Linux (version 2.6.3.4), licensed under the GNU General Public License version 2. A copy of such license is available at: <http://www.gnu.org/licenses/gpl-2.0.html>

NTI provides a warranty for NTI BACKUP NOW EZ included in your purchase under conditions set forth by NTI.

However, the Software, including Third Party Software is made available for use by the user without any warranty from NTI or any third party. These software components are licensed to the user free of charge and therefore not covered by any warranty within the scope of the applicable laws. These software components are provided in “as is” condition without any warranty, whether express or implied. “Warranty” here includes, but not limited to, an implied warranty for non-infringement, marketability or fitness for specific uses. All risks associated with the quality or performance of these software components are assumed by the user. NTI shall not be liable whatsoever for any cost of repair or correction or other incidental expense incurred in connection with a defect found in any of these software components. Unless specified under the applicable laws or in a written agreement, neither NTI or its licensors shall be held liable whatsoever for any loss arising from the use of or inability to use such software components, even if NTI or its licensors have been informed of the possibility of such loss. “Loss” here includes normal, special, incidental and indirect loss (including, but not limited to, the loss of data or its accuracy; loss incurred by the user or any third party; and interface incompatibility with other software).
